Perfectionism and mistakes

For a healthier approach to failure –The Girl Who Never Made Mistakes by Mark Pett and Gary Rubenstein. This is a must-read for any young perfectionist. Beatrice Bottomwell teaches us something about learning from mistakes and letting go of being perfect.

Trying again

The Most Magnificent Thing by Ashley Spires. A little girl and her canine assistant set out to make the most magnificent thing. But after much hard work, the end result is not what the girl had in mind. Frustrated, she quits. Her assistant suggests a long walk, and as they walk, it slowly becomes clear what the girl needs to do to succeed. A charming story that will give kids the most magnificent thing: perspective!
